

The role: Account Manager

Who's the right person for the job?

Are you someone who lives digital?

Do you understand what it takes to deliver great creative ideas, projects and services? Do you have a meticulous eye for detail? Can you be attentive to client needs? Will you make their business goals your own?

Are you a great presenter? Can you spark a light when pitching, and then fuel the fire; growing long-term relationships and building essential networks? Can you develop opportunities to the proposal stage and then create realistic and workable briefs?

Are you collaborative? Do you want to work alongside and support great people? Can you initiate as well as facilitate? Do you have a professional, yet freestyle, attitude?

Are you solid as a rock, but fluid as a river? Are you always looking to add 'strings to your bow'? Do you want to be better than you are? Do you want to grow?

If the answer is 'Yes', then the Freestyle Team would love to speak to you!
